

From: Clark Perry [mailto:clarkandterry@msn.com]
Sent: Saturday, March 31, 2007 7:56 PM
To: Energy Technology Engineering Center
Subject: RMHF EE/CA comments

TO: The U. S. Department of Energy
Our area gets huge winds. Disposal of the entire Radioactive Materials Handling Facility (RMHF) at the Santa Susana Field Laboratory in order to remove radioactive materials must involve a lot of digging and/or explosions. Digging and explosions involve a lot of DUST. This dust is going to blow all over the place!! Do we want radioactive dust blowing all over the valley? WE DO NOT!! You must find another way.

Terry & Clark Perry
Clark Perry Construction
23648 Balmoral Lane
West Hills, CA 91307